NOW MISS GIFFARD LEADS

IN THE BULLETIN'S BICYCLE VOTING CONTEST.

The Largest Number of Votes Polled in Any One Day Counted by the Committee.

Seven hundred and thirty-seven votes were found in the box at noon today when it was opened by the committee, and their counting makes a change in the rotation of the contestants, as Miss Jennie Giffard takes the lead over Miss Phenie King by just 8 votes, and no more. Miss Giffard gained 372 votes on the day or nearly the entire number cast. Miss King gained 186 votes, not quite enough to keep her in the lead.

Mrs. Renner is still a good third with 520 votes, a gain of 118 over yesterday. Miss Annie Clark has 79 votes and a new competitor in Miss A. Arnold appears on the list.

The Cleveland is still ahead with 1940 votes to its credit, a gain of 186 votes over yesterday. Strange to say the gain of the Rambler is only one less, leaving their relative position same as yesterday. The Monarch has made a big jump today, taking third place with plenty of votes to spare. Its gain over yesterday was 349 votes.

Hereafter persons receiving a total of less than 25 votes will be counted as scattering.

He will also add tricks with knives, fans, etc. Tickets can be obtained of Chang Kim in Hartwell & Thurston's office, D. L. Kwai with W. S. Edings and Charles L. Young at C. T. Gulick's.

DROWNED THIS MORNING

THE CORPSE OF HARRY WALSH FOUND NEAR LONG BRANCH.

Was It a Case of Suicide or Not to be Determined by the Coroner's Jury.

About 10 o'clock this morning a telephone message was received at the Police Station from James Sherwood of the Long Branch baths at Waikiki to the effect that the body of an aged white man had been found near his place. Mr. Sherwood said the man had undoubtedly been drowned and he thought he was one of the men who was in the employ of the Hawaiian Tramways Company as a car driver. The body was soon afterwards identified as that of a car driver named Harry Walsh who, until a few days ago, drove car No. 20 on the Nuanuu street line. His fellow-drivers state that Walsh took a lay-off a few days ago, since when he has been drinking heavily.

Coroner Hitchcock telephoned that he would hold the inquest at Sherwood's and left shortly afterwards for that place and summoned a jury for 1 o'clock.

Clarence White rode in on the car with Walsh this morning from Panahou, and noticed that the man looked sick and despondent. He spoke to him but got only a groggy answer in return.

Clarence McFarlane also saw him later on. He was then riding out to Waikiki in another car. At the inquest Lieutenant Coyne testified that he was fishing this morning when Walsh went in bathing. He caught a fish and went in to feed it to Sherwood's birds and when he came back he could see nothing of Walsh. He gave the alarm and himself and Sherwood recovered the body and endeavored to resuscitate it but without avail.

An employe of Mr. Sherwood testified that the man asked for him, but upon being told that he was not up yet, took a bathing suit and went into the water.

The inquest had not been concluded at the hour of going to press.
